

Legal Program Director

Reports to: Vice President & Chief of Staff

PennFuture's mission is to lead the transition to a clean energy economy in Pennsylvania and beyond. We protect our air, water, and land, and empower citizens to build sustainable communities for future generations.

INTRODUCTION:

PennFuture is one of the first statewide environmental organizations in Pennsylvania to employ a full-time legal staff to fulfill its mission. Entering its third decade as a force for environmental protection, PennFuture has four offices across the state. PennFuture prides itself on employing some of the brightest, most determined and committed environmental lawyers. With legal tactics at the organization's core, PennFuture lawyers are given substantial responsibility and independence to shape legal strategies that achieve outcomes and address priorities. The position offers a unique opportunity to use advocacy, regulatory, watchdog, and litigation skills to advance case law, shape and defend environmental policy, ensure environmental laws are enforced accordingly, and, ultimately, protect the environment.

The Legal Program Director (Director) is the backbone of PennFuture's legal team and oversees all legal activities. The Director is responsible for supervising the law staff and advising clients, including the organization. Other responsibilities include recruiting, training, mentoring, case reviews, and creating an efficient, well-structured team, all the while ensuring the program is in full compliance with all local, state, and federal requirements. The Director carries their own case load and may have additional leadership responsibilities specific to their location in the state.

The Director is a leading member of the senior staff and is positioned to advance PennFuture's legal activities over the coming years.

In particular, the Legal Program Director:

- Works with Executive Staff to ensure legal program activities are strategically aligned with PennFuture's vision, mission, and goals as set forth in its strategic plan.
- Manages the law staff and legal program, including developing a set of legal strategies that advance organizational priorities across the Commonwealth.
- Ensures an active litigation docket to advance environmental protections. Practices in a broad area of state and federal environmental law, including Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, Oil and Gas Act and laws relating air, water, energy, and climate change.
- Participates in fundraising and supports financial development for PennFuture's legal work, including developing proposals and meeting with funders, and pursuing cost recovery cases as appropriate.

- Researches, develops, and litigates cases before administrative tribunals and all levels of state and federal courts, including engaging in all aspects of litigation, including discovery, pre-trial motions, trials, and appellate work.
- Researches and prepares comments on agency rules, policies, guidance documents, and permits. Lends assistance to PennFuture's staff on policy, as needed, to further these initiatives.
- Functions as a thought leader and expert, interfacing with the media and decisionmakers on issues the legal program is engaging on.
- Provides legal counsel to and represent PennFuture as well as potential clients outside of PennFuture.
- Supports occasional contractual review of PennFuture documents (e.g. leases, grant agreements, and contracts) and other work as requested.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

- Highly effective litigator with experience in environmental or public interest law with approximately 10 years litigation experience. Management experience and experience with Pennsylvania environmental law desirable.
- Admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar, or eligible for admission at time of appointment.
- Commitment to PennFuture's mission and demonstrated commitment to advancing environmental protection with vision and results.
- Entrepreneurial character with a proven ability to identify new opportunities to achieve objectives that meet PennFuture's strategic goals.
- Ability to communicate well through written, verbal, and collaborative means with diverse staff and communities, the media, and funders.
- Proven ability to partner with other organizations to achieve objectives and to maintain long term relationships with clients and partner organizations.
- Willing to travel, as needed.

OTHER:

The ideal candidate will be a mid-career professional with significant momentum demonstrated by an active and impactful track record of the candidate's work. This individual should be energetic, ambitious, creative, aggressive, and thoughtful.

The location of this position is negotiable and can be based out of any of PennFuture's offices in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, or Mt. Pocono.

This is a full-time, exempt, position. Competitive salary based on experience. Benefits package includes health care, dental, vision, paid vacation, paid sick leave, paid holidays, and a 403(b)-retirement plan.
